YOUR EXPERIENCE

Driving on Botswana Roads.

- Please act according to the road signs and do not overspeed. On dusty roads the lights of the vehicle should be switched on so that oncoming traffic can see you.
- Tyre pressure is very important and must be checked regularly.
- Please watch out for animals crossing the road.
- The gravel roads are extremely slippery after rain.
- Never drive through flowing rivers.
- Do not drive off-road nor leave your vehicle under any circumstances. This is prohibited in all national parks unless in designated areas such as camps.

Extract of the General Rental Terms and Conditions:

- Daily rates are calculated on a 24-hour basis from time of pickup to time to drop off.
- No vehicle may be taken outside Botswana unless otherwise arranged.
- All our vehicles are comprehensively insured. However, in the event of an insurance claim arising, the renter will be held liable for an excess amount. This must be provided in advance by the renter. Excess securable by credit card only.
- All rates are subject to change without notice.
- A valid unexpired driver's license and passport must be produced by the driver/renter.
- Rental extension can be made subject to availability.
- If necessary we reserve the right to substitute vehicles should the booked vehicle not be available.
